

...nological appearances in the kidneys, moreover, re
 by purely mechanical obstructive lesions.
 two or three days, renal failure was entirely lat
 to pass urine, passed often entirely unsuspected.
 anuria is obvious. Often nausea or vomiting wa e case the intractable nature of this was the on a was spotted. The tongue was then noted to be lour could be detected. The gastro-intestinal formation by bacteria however, were remarkable b n was seen, nor was pericarditis detected clinic marked feature was the abnormal mental state: t nt became drowsy & apathetic, easily roused by s & apprehensive, "excitable & lachrymose" (F.21)

CRUSH INJURIES AND KIDNEY FUNCTION

Reprint of Three Articles
 from the "BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL," March 22, 1941,
 with Reports of Cases collected by the M.R.C.
 and Editorial

17470

PUBLISHED BY THE OFFICE OF THE
 BRITISH MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 5, AVE MARIA
 LANE, LONDON, W.1.

INJECTION OF INSULIN, 80 UNITS,
 AND GLUCOSE, 40 G.

IS BEFORE	HOURS AFTER.
0-1	0-8	2-8	6-3	24-5
4-0	3-8	2-7	2-2	4-0
30-1	28-8	26-0	24-6	30-0
120	104	42	64	136
—	576	—	(AT 4-3')	668

BYWATERS AND BEALL
 REMEMBERED
 ACUTE KIDNEY INJURY DURING THE LONDON
 BLITZ, 1940-1941
 KEYNOTE LECTURE DR MIKE ALMOND
 LONDON ACUTE KIDNEY INJURY NETWORK LAUNCH EVENT
 WORLD KIDNEY DAY
 MARCH 8TH 2012
 WELLCOME COLLECTION

